

Street, Park & Trail Naming

City of Yellowknife

Meaningful naming is an integral part of community place-making. Any person or organization may submit a request to name a street, park or trail within the City of Yellowknife.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- All streets, parks and trails shall be named either:
  - after individuals who have made a significant contribution to the history or development of Yellowknife; or
  - to reflect the culture or history of the City or surrounding neighborhood; or
  - by theme.
- Where street names in a neighbourhood or subdivision are based on a specific theme, the name of all new streets shall be consistent with the theme.
- Names will be considered for their Uniqueness, Distinctiveness, and Contribution by an individual.
- Names of streets, parks or trails should not be changed and will only be considered in exceptional circumstances.

DID YOU KNOW?

Stirling Court was named after Jan Stirling. Mrs. Sterling is an exceptional Yellowknife resident who has been nurse-in-charge at the Yellowknife Public Health Centre; has done work in remote communities; has helped immigrants settle into Canada and in 2000 won the Caring Canadian Award; has been a recipient of the Status of Women Council's Wise Women Award for her dedication and commitment to Yellowknife; and finally has served as President of the Yellowknife Seniors Society and is a long-standing volunteer with the United Church.

APPLICATION FORM (continued)

Please provide the following specific information for all new name submissions for streets, parks, or trails within the City of Yellowknife. If required, attach a separate sheet.

BE SURE TO TELL US:

---

If the name is after an individual, what was their contribution to the City of Yellowknife?

If name is by theme, how is the name being put forward consistent with the established theme?

For all names, how does the name reflect the culture or history of the City or surrounding neighborhood?

For all names, how is the name unique or distinctive?
