Access for ALL

A program to include all Yellowknifers in our facilities!
Along with Free Public Transit to assist your family in travelling to our facilities!

What does the Access for All Program offer?

One year's worth of Transit passes and a one year Family Flexi Pass membership.

This provides access to:

- Yellowknife Transit and Yellowknife Accessible Transit Service (YATS).
- All public and family activities at the:
 - Ruth Inch Memorial Pool
 - Multiplex
 - Fieldhouse
- All drop in programs (i.e. play together and drop in sports)

Activities which are not applicable with use of the Flexi Pass:

- City of Yellowknife programs and Day Camps

Why are you asking me about the number of family members in my household?

It is important for the City to know how many passes to prepare once your application has been approved.

How Long does it take to process an Access for All application?

It takes up to four weeks upon receipt of the application to process. All applicants will be notified of eligibility.

Where do I send in the application?

Please submit your application by:

- Dropping off the completed application in a sealed envelope marked "Confidential" at any of the following City Facilities: City Hall; Ruth Inch Memorial Pool or Yellowknife Fieldhouse.
- Email application to AccessForAll@yellowknife.ca
- Fax your application to (867) 920-5649 (Attention Community Services)
- Mail application to:
Access For All, City of Yellowknife
Box 580, Yellowknife, NT X1A 2N4

What will I receive from the City if I am approved for the Access for All program?

Once you are approved you will receive a package that includes:

- Information explaining where and how to obtain your Flexi Pass.
- A copy of the most recent edition of the Recreation Guide listing City drop in schedules and facility hours.
- Monthly Transit passes for the remainder of the current calendar year of your acceptance. In December of the current year you can pick up the remainder of Transit passes from City Hall.

What if I'm not approved for the Access for All program?

If your financial situation has changed you are welcome to reapply. There is no waiting period required. Please call us at (867) 920-5600 or email AccessForAll@yellowknife.ca to discuss your application.

Do I have to re-apply to the Access for All program?

Yes, as your financial situation may have changed within the year. However, you can apply up to four weeks prior to the expiration date on your Access For All notification letter.

What if I lose my Flexi Pass or Transit Passes?

A $5.00 replacement charge will be applied if you lose your Flexi Pass. You can pick up a replacement Flexi Pass at City Hall, Ruth Inch Memorial Pool or the Fieldhouse. Your lost card will no longer be active. Transit passes will not be replaced.
